In an industry where the unexpected becomes the norm, I encountered a situation that truly took me by surprise. Imagine discovering a document, allegedly signed by you, that you had, in fact, never seen before. This was my reality when I was accused based on a forged non-compete agreement. I documented my initial shock and disbelief in a video, which I've s... See more

Each day, my little one teaches me the power of simple moments, the depth of untapped patience, and the warmth of unconditional love.

He's my little teacher, showing me that strength isn't just about standing firm but also about bending with kindness and love. As I navigate through t... See more

🏆 Platinums Top Producing Doctor! 🏆

We'd like to take a brief pause to shine a spotlight on Scot Gray, Platinum's standout performer across the board. Navigating the complexities of large-scale partnerships and significant financial stakes is no small feat for any organization.

Dr. Gray isn't just accountable for steering millions of dollars towards Regen purchases; he's also an invaluable mentor to many in the field. His mastery over the dinner seminar technique and his role... See more

Vitti Labs! Is Vitti Labs an Imaginary 361 HCTP Product? Is Vitti Labs a Drug manufacture?

Lately we've seen some WILD claims coming from Vitti Labs. Who isn't suppose to be selling product, and kind of doesn't anymore.. But they do? What does this mean for you? What does this mean for your malpractice?

These are only my opinions please see the video for full disclaimer.

It's been a rollercoaster of ups and downs, but one thing that truly stands out is the incredible people I've had the pleasure of meeting along the way. From fellow dreamers to inspiring mentors, every person has left a mark on my journey, teaching me something valuable.

And let's not forget the amazing experiences and places this path has led me to! Every new project feels like an adventure, opening doors to new sights, sounds, and possibilities.
